

Wawoochong Temple & Korean Folk Village

Wawoochong Temple: Surrounded by the 48 peaks of Mt. Yonhwasan, Wawoojung Temple is located about 10 minutes driving distance away from Yongin. In 1975, Haewolbopsa, a Buddhist monk moved from North Korea. He built this temple to pray for the reunification of the country.

The greatest landmark of this temple is the world's largest 10 feet high, 32 feet long Wabul (reclining Buddha) carved out of a huge Chinese Juniper Tree imported from Indonesia. On the site, visitors will also be drawn to the huge head of Buddha, brass ojonbul (five images of Buddha) which are made out of 30 tons of brass. It took 10 years to carve. Also, there are a 12-ton Bell of Reunification and the stone pagodas beside the stairs leading to the Nirvana Hall.

Korean Folk Village is home to numerous collections of Korean cultural artifacts, providing an opportunity for Korean children to experience and learn the culture of their ancestors firsthand. It is located 20 miles south of Seoul, near Suwon and stands on 243 acres. The site provides a venue to promote traditional Korean culture to both domestic and international visitors, and provides an open-air learning place for succeeding generations. The village has been developed to convey the wisdom and the spirits of our ancestors to both domestic and international tourists.
